2. work toward tikkun (healing, repair) of our community, Israel and the world;
3. participate in the growth of Kehillah.

Financial Commitment/Dues

Become a full partner in Kehillah with your annual financial commitment.

Formal partnership (your membership dues) provides Kehillah with the funds that enable us to operate and provide services to our partners. With your annual financial commitment, Kehillah conducts services and programs and supports education and a rabbinic/pastoral presence. It also funds our regular operating expenses such as building rental, clerical services, insurance, printing, telephone and internet services, etc. It is necessary to ensure that our community is fiscally sound and can fulfill its mission.

Partnership in Kehillah is open to any person of the Jewish faith and his/her spouse/partner. For this inaugural year, dues paid now will be valid through June 30th, 2010.

Financial Support Categories

Support categories were developed after careful consideration of the need to create a balance between the fiscal requirements of Kehillah and keeping costs as low as possible for our partners. It is Kehillah's intention to operate in a sound, fiscally responsible manner, yet remain accessible to those who seek what Kehillah offers.
